ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/A2, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 11.06.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 406 and 420 of IPC, in Crime No.91 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is an auto driver. In the year 2024, when he decided to go to abroad for finding employment, he has approached one Senthil who has sent many persons to London. Believing the same, the accused persons received a sum of Rs.13,00,000/- and they had given fake visa and ticket to the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident.

He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 11.06.2026. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that investigation in this case is still pending and the offences are grave in nature. He would further submit that the petitioner has no previous cases. However, he vehemently, opposed to grant of bail.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the charge levelled as against the
