ORDER

Seeking to direct the respondents to consider the petitioner's complaint dated 25.05.2026 and direct them to conduct fair and impartial enquiry, this writ petition is filed.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has lodged a complaint as against her husband with the 2nd respondent police. However, having not initiating any action against her husband, the 2nd respondent police had indulged in intimidating the petitioner and compelled her to give an written undertaking that she herself is voluntarily withdrawing the complaint. Pursuant to which, the petitioner had sent a representation to the Chief Minister's Cell about the atrocious manner in which the 2nd respondent had conducted enquiry and compelled her to withdraw the complaint against her husband. Since there is no action, the petitioner is before this Court.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and carefully perused the materials available on record.
