2. The case of the prosecution is that on 24.03.2026 at about 3.45 p.m., after completion of the school, the defacto complainant passing through the Aasath Road, National High way at that time two unknown persons came in a two wheeler, and snatched the defacto complainant's 2 pounds gold chain. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is not the named accused in the FIR. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The petitioner along with other accused person snatched the gold chain of the defacto complainant. The petitioner is a history sheeted person and having four previous cases. Investigation is still pending. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the nature of charges levelled against the petitioner, the petitioner is not the named accused in the FIR, though the prosecution has stated that the petitioner is a history sheeted person and having four previous cases, in all those cases he was granted bail, they are not similar kind of offence, and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Manapparai, Tiruchirappalli District, and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the Inspector of Police, Sattur police Station, daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders:

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which he/she is accused, or suspected, or of the
