The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on execution of NBW on 01.06.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 342, 323, 324, 427, 307, 506(2) IPC in Crime No. 181 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The petitioner has committed the above said offences. After completing the investigation charge sheet has been filed before the concerned Court and after committal proceedings, now case is pending in S.C.No. 283 of 2024 on the file of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Tenkasi.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner was already released on bail and since the petitioner has not turned up for the hearing, Non-Bailable Warrant (NBW) was issued and the same was executed on 01.06.2026 and he is still in judicial custody. He would further submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to non-appearance, the Non-Bailable Warrant was issued against the petitioner. He would further submit that the petitioner has 18 previous cases and if the petitioner released on bail, he may abscond, which would affect the trial. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and considering the fact that already the petitioner was granted bail and thereafter, due to non-appearance, NBW was issued and now the case is posted for trial before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Tenkasi in SC No.283 of 2024 and though the petitioner has previous cases to his credit, the petitioner has got bail in the previous cases registered against him as well as considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined
