The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 74, 115(2), 351(3) of BNS, 2023 and Section 4 of the Tamilnadu Harassment of Women Act, in Crime No.44 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant had relationship with one Praveen Kumar, who is already married, after got separation from her husband. In such circumstances, on 27.05.2026, the said Praveen Kumar attempted to commit suicide and later died on 30.05.2026. When the defacto complainant went to mortuary to see his body, the accused are said to have abused the defacto Complainant in filthy language and threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected in the above said incident. He would further submit that nobody sustained injury in the alleged occurrence and no previous cases is pending against the petitioners. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Counsel For State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that the offence committed by the accused is grave in nature and the investigation is still pending. Hence, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. He would further submit that nobody sustained injury in the alleged occurrence and no previous cases is pending against the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners, and there is a family dispute between the parties and nobody sustained injury in the alleged occurrence and no previous cases is pending against the petitioners, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:
