ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 04.05.2026 for the offences punishable under Section 296(b), 351(3) of BNS and Section 4 of TNPHW Act and Sections 3 r/w 4 of POCSO Act, 2012, in Crime No.119 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the victim, who was 17 years old at the time of occurrence had love affair with the petitioner and taking advantage of the same, the petitioner had a physical relationship with her. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that there was a love affair between the petitioner and the victim and he has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 04.05.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that based on the complaint lodged by the defacto complainant, the case has been registered. He would further submit that though the investigation has been completed and charge sheet filed, considering the grave nature of offence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and considering the facts that the statement of victim under Section 183 of BNSS was recorded; according to the petitioner, there was a love affair between the petitioner and the victim; that the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner as well as the stage of completion of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
