The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 232 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 10.06.2026, the petitioner's cattle destroyed the cultivating land of the defacto complainant, and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, due to civil dispute between the parties, the petitioner abused him in filthy language and attacked him with iron rod. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 232 of 2026. He would further submit that injured was discharged from the hospital and the petitioner has 27 previous cases, out of which in seven cases, the petitioner was acquitted and also the petitioner is a history sheeter. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that injured was discharged from the hospital and though the petitioner has 27 previous cases, out of which in seven cases, the petitioner was acquitted and in all cases the petitioner was granted bail, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the
