The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 265 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.06.2026, when the defacto complainant, the petitioner and other accused were drinking alcohol, there was a wordy quarrel arose between the parties, due to which the petitioner assaulted him with weapons causing injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that co-accused were granted bail. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 265 of 2026. He would further submit that injured was discharged from the hospital and the petitioner has four previous cases and the petitioner is a history sheet holder. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that injured was discharged from the hospital and though the petitioner has four previous cases, in all cases bail was granted to him and also co-accused were granted bail, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
