2. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.05.2026 at about 04.00 p.m., when the defacto complainant was in her house, the accused persons criminally trespassed into the complainant's house, demanded jewells by threatening them with knife. Upon raising alarm they pushed her on the ground and robbed 50 sovereigns of silver ornaments and a sum of Rs.7,100/-. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. On the knife point the accused persons robbed the jewels and the money. The first petitioner has two previous cases and the second petitioner has one previous case. Investigation is still pending. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioners.
