The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Section 309(4) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 134 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 01.06.2026 at about 7.15 p.m., when the defacto complainant was returning home on his two wheeler, the accused persons intercepted him and demanded his mobile phone and when the same was refused by him, they threatened him, and by showing knife, forcibly snatched his mobile phone. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Section 309(4) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 134 of 2026. He would further submit that the petitioner has one previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the age of the petitioner and also considering the fact that though the petitioner has one previous case in that case the petitioner was granted bail, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy
