ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 29.05.2026 for the offences punishable under Section Girl Missing @ 87 of BNS and Sections 5(l), 6, 17, 21(1) of POCSO Act, 2012 in Crime No.319 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 25.05.2026 at 03.00p.m., when the victim went to the house of the petitioner/A2, her son, who is the first accused had penetrative sexual assault with the victim. Though the petitioner had known that the first accused had physical relationship with the victim many times, she had concealed the same. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and she was falsely implicated in this case and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that there was a love affair between the first accused and the victim and the petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 29.05.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that based on the complaint lodged by the defacto complainant, the case has been registered. He would further submit that though the investigation has been completed and charge sheet filed, the petitioner is the abettor and considering the gravity of offence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and considering the facts that the statement of victim under Section 183 of BNSS was recorded and according to the petitioner, there was a love affair between the first accused and the victim and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner as well as the stage of completion of
