2. The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute, the petitioner, who is ranked as A1, joined hands with other accused attacked the deceased with deadly weapons and caused injuries on the vital parts and caused death. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that he is in custody from 22.05.2026 and ready to abide any condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel appearing for the State reiterated the prosecution case and reported that A2 in this case is absconding, investigation is still pending, though two co-accused were released on bail, they are women,. The petitioner has no previous case. Hence he strongly opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on
