ORDER

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offence under

CRL OP(MD). No.12595 of 2026

Sections 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 118(1), 115(2), 351(3) of BNS Act, 2023, in Crime No.105 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioner is that due to the wordy quarrel arose between the accused and the defacto complainant, the petitioner, joining hands with the other accused, attacked the defacto complainant with an aruval and other weapons and caused injury. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital and the petitioner has no previous antecedent. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, submitted that the petitioner is ranked as A4 and due to the wordy quarrel, the petitioner, joining hands with the other accused, attacked the defacto complainant and the investigation is at preliminary stage. He would further submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital and the petitioner has no previous antecedent. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the material available on records.

6. Considering the nature of allegations against the petitioner, and also considering the facts that there is a dispute due to the wordy quarrel arose between the parties and the injured was discharged from the hospital and the petitioner has no previous antecedent, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thirumangalam, on condition that the
