2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioner joining hands with other accused, attacked the defacto complainant and another and caused severe injuries to them. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that one of the co-accused already released on bail. The injured was discharged from the hospital. Though the petitioner has one previous case, it is only for 506(ii) IPC. He is in custody from 14.06.2026 and ready to abide any condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel appearing for the State reiterated the prosecution case and reported that the petitioner has one previous case. The main accused in this case is still absconding. He opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
