3. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the respondents 2 & 3 were granted anticipatory bail by an order dated 28.07.2025 in Crl.MP.No.1527 of 2025 and imposed condition that the petitioner should report before the respondent police daily at 10.00 a.m for 30 days. He would further submit that on the complaint lodged by the petitioner regarding the alleged threat made to the witnesses by the respondents 2 & 3, investigation was conducted and the same was also closed.

Theni, after considering the entire case records, granted anticipatory bail to them and they also complied with the conditions imposed by the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Theni. Thereafter, again the petitioner gave a false complaint against the respondents 2 & 3 that they threatened the witnesses. That complaint was enquired and thereafter, closed by the concerned police. Therefore, there is no breach of condition and there is no ground to cancel the anticipatory bail granted to the respondents 2 & 3 by the Court below dated 28.07.2025.

In this case, it is admitted fact that based on the complaint lodged by her, a case has been registered against the respondents 2 & 3 and thereafter, the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Theni, granted anticipatory bail to the respondents 2 & 3 by an order dated 28.07.2025. The main ground raised by the petitioner is that after releasing on anticipatory bail, the respondents 2 & 3 threatened the witnesses. In this regard, on receipt of complaint given by the petitioner, already enquiry was conducted and closed by the police at the CSR stage and no FIR has been registered against the respondents 2 & 3. Apart from that, there is no material submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner to substantiate his contention and there is no other ground raised by the petitioner to cancel the anticipatory bail granted to the respondents 2 & 3 herein.
