The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 19.03.2025 for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c) r/w 20(b)(ii)(c), 29(1) and 25 of NDPS Act, 1985 in Crime No. 176 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.03.2025, the petitioner/A6 and other accused were in illegal joint possession of 24 kg of ganja. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that no contraband was recovered from this petitioner and all the contraband was recovered from A1 to A3 only. He would further submit that he has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 19.03.2025. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would admit that no contraband was recovered from this petitioner and all the contraband was recovered from A1 to A3 only and the petitioner has five previous cases under IPC offences. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and considering the facts that though the quantity of contraband involved in this case is a commercial quantity, the entire contraband was recovered from A1 to A3 and no any contraband was recovered from this petitioner and even according to the prosecution, this petitioner only handed over the cellphone to the Investigating Officer and no previous case is pending against the petitioner in similar nature and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to
