respondent strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner on the ground that the quantity involved in this case is a commercial quantity and the petitioners herein are the Sri Lankan Citizens and they are found in possession of bogus Indian national records. Apart from that, earlier petitions filed by the petitioners were dismissed by this Court and there are no change of circumstance.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and the quantity involved in this case is a commercial quantity and this Court dismissed the bail petitioners several times and there are no change of circumstance and the petitioners have failed to satisfy the conditions contemplated under Section 37 of the NDPS Act and already trial was commenced and the case was posted to 10.04.2026 for examination of the Investigating Officer, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioners.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
