2. Despite the service of notice to the respondent as well as to the counsel appearing for the respondent before trial Court, the respondent failed to enter into appearance.

3. It is not in dispute that the marriage between the parties was solemnized on 29.06.2023 as per Hindu rites and customs and that subsequently, there arose some misunderstanding between them and they are living separately.

4. It is also not in dispute that the respondent has filed a petition in H.M.O.P.No.45 of 2025, seeking divorce and the same is pending on the file of the I Additional Sub Court, Salem. He would submit that the petitioner is residing at Krishnarayapuram Taluk, Karur and finds it very difficult to travel to Salem to attend all the hearings.

5. As already pointed out, despite receipt of notice, the respondent has not turned up.

6. In the case of N.C.V.Aishwarya Vs. A.S.Saravana Karthik Sha reported in 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has reiterated the position with generally, it is the wife's convenience, which must be looked at while considering the transfer petition under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure and the relevant passage is extracted hereunder :

“The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.”, the bench observed.”

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and taking note of the fact that the petitioner is residing at Krishnarayapuram Taluk, Karur
