custody on 28.08.2025 for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c) r/w 20(b)(ii)(C) and 25 of NDPS Act, in Crime No.88 of 2017 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 27.12.2017, at about 14.13 hours, the respondent received a secret information and conducted vehicle check up at Thoothukudi to Tiruchendur near Tiruchendur Round Ana Junction, and identified a car bearing Registration No.AP-31 AM-7718. The respondent Police intercepted the vehicle and conducted search. During search, the petitioner and other accused were found in illegal possession of 110 kgs of Ganja. Hence, the petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 28.08.2025. Hence this petition.

3. It is not in dispute that since the petitioner has not turned up for the hearing, Non-Bailable Warrant (NBW) was ordered to be issued and the same was executed on 28.08.2025 and he is still in judicial custody.

4.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 28.08.2025. Therefore, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that due to non-appearance, the Non-Bailable Warrant was issued against the petitioner. He would further submit that the contraband involved is a commercial quantity. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and bail was already granted to the petitioner and due to the non-appearance before the trial Court, nbw was issued against him and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
