3.This interlocutory application has been filed by the plaintiff to condone the delay of 81 days in representing the restoration I.A, which was returned on 03.11.2023 under Section 5 of the Limitation Act. The same was dismissed by the trial Court on the ground that the petitioner has not mentioned any reason for the said delay. Against which, this revision has been filed.

4.The learned counsel for the respondents submitted that the petitioner has not explained each and every day delay with acceptable documentary proof. Hence, he prays for the dismissal of the petition.

5.Perusal of records shows that the petitioner has not explained each and every day delay with acceptable documentary evidence. Hence, this Court is not inclined to allow this petition.

6.Accordingly, this civil revision petition is dismissed. No costs.
