The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent pursuant to the Non-Bailable Warrant issued by the learned Additional Assistant Sessions Court cum Sub Court, Pudukottai, in S.C.No.150 of 2022 for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 323, 325 and 307 of IPC, seeks anticipatory bail.

The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant and his friends were eating in a hostel, the petitioner and other accused urged them, due to which a quarrel arose and the petitioner and other accused assaulted the defacto complainant and his friend with wooden log. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioner was already released on bail and since the petitioner has not turned up for the hearing, Non-Bailable Warrant (NBW) was ordered to be issued 02.11.2022. He would further submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He would further submit that the petitioner is a contractual labour and hence, he could not appear before the Trial Court. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) fairly admits that already bail was granted to these petitioners and due to non-appearance, Non-Bailable Warrant was issued against the petitioner. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and considering the fact that already bail was granted to the petitioner and due to absence, Non-Bailable Warrant was issued and the same is pending, it is appropriate to direct the petitioner to appear before the Trial Court, where the NBW is pending and file an appropriate application for cancellation of NBW.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to appear before the Trial
