ORDER

Heard M/s.A.Banumathy, learned Counsel for Revision Petitioner and Mr.P.Kottaichamy, learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) for Respondent.

2. The present Criminal Revision case has been filed to set aside the order of Judicial Magistrate No.III, Tiruchirappalli, dated 13.10.2025 in Crl.M.P.No.23166 of 2025, whereby the petition under Section 497 & 503 of BNSS for interim custody of vehicle viz., Bharath Benz Tipper Lorry, bearing Registration No.TN 48 AE 5837, was rejected on the premise that the case is under investigation and that vehicle may be altered, if custody is granted to petitioner.

3. M/s.A.Banumathy, learned Counsel for Revision Petitioner would submit that petitioner is owner of the vehicle viz., Bharath Benz Tipper Lorry, bearing Registration No.TN 48 AE 5837. The said vehicle was seized by Respondent Police and a case was registered in Crime No.545 of 2025, for offence punishable under Sections 303(2) of BNS, 2023 and Section 21(4) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, alleging that petitioner illegally transported gravel sand. Petitioner has filed Crl.MP.No.23166 of 2025 before the Judicial Magistrate No.III, Tiruchirappalli, to grant interim custody of the said vehicle and the said petition was dismissed by the court below by the impugned order dated 13.10.2025 for the reasons stated supra. Hence, this Criminal Revision Case has been filed.

Crl.RC(MD).No.1434 of 2025

4. Learned Counsel for Petitioner would further submit that petitioner is the owner of the said vehicle and that he would abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. In support thereof, he produced the copy of Registration Certificate of said vehicle and the same was perused by Mr.P.Kotttaichamy, learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for respondent, who confirmed that Registration Certification stands in the name of petitioner.

5. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the said vehicle may be released subject to conditions and in case, confiscation proceedings are being initiated, petitioner must co-operate and the same was agreed to by learned counsel for Revision Petitioner.

6. Before proceeding further, it may be relevant to refer to provisions of Sections 497 and 503 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS), which reads as follows:-

"497. Order for custody and disposal of property pending trial in certain cases.-When any property is produced before any Criminal Court during any inquiry or trial, the Court may make such order as it thinks fit for the proper custody of such property pending the conclusion of the inquiry or trial, and, if the property is subject to speedy and natural decay, or if it is otherwise expedient so to do, the Court may, after recording such evidence as it thinks necessary, order it to be sold or otherwise disposed of.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this section," property" includes-

(a) property of any kind or document which is produced before the Court or which is in its custody,

(b) any property regarding which an offence appears to have been committed or which appears to have been used for the commission of any offence.

(2) The Court or the Magistrate shall, within a period of fourteen days from the production of the property referred to in sub-section (1) before it, prepare a statement of such property containing its description in such form and manner as the State Government may, by rules, provide.

(3) The Court or the Magistrate shall cause to be taken the photograph and if necessary, videograph on mobile phone or any electronic media, of the property referred to in sub-section (1).

(4) The statement prepared under sub-section (2) and the photograph or the videography taken under sub-section (3) shall be used as evidence in any inquiry, trial or other proceeding under the Sanhita.

(5) The Court or the Magistrate shall, within a period of thirty days after the statement has been prepared under sub-section (2) and the photograph or the videography has been taken under sub-section (3), order the disposal, destruction, confiscation or delivery of the property in the manner specified hereinafter.

503. Procedure by police upon seizure of property.-(1)

Whenever the seizure of property by any police officer is reported to a Magistrate under the provisions of this Code, and such property is not produced before a Criminal Court during an inquiry or trial, the Magistrate may make such order as he thinks fit respecting the disposal of such property or the delivery of such property to the person entitled to the possession thereof, or if such person cannot be ascertained, respecting the custody and production of such property.

Crl.RC(MD).No.1434 of 2025

- (2) If the person so entitled is known, the Magistrate may order the property to be delivered to him on such conditions (if any) as the Magistrate thinks fit and if such person is unknown, the Magistrate may detain it and shall, in such case, issue a proclamation specifying the articles of which such property consists, and requiring any person who may have a claim thereto, to appear before him and establish his claim within six months from the date of such proclamation."

7. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Sunderbhai Ambalal

Desai vs State of Gujarat, reported in AIR 2003 SC 638, held as under:-

"17. In our view, whatever be the situation, it is of no use to keep such seized vehicles at the police stations for a long period. It is for the Magistrate to pass appropriate orders immediately by taking appropriate bond and guarantee as well as security for return of the said vehicles, if required at any point of time. This can be done pending hearing of application for return of such vehicles.

21. However these powers are to be exercised by the concerned Magistrate. We hope and trust that the concerned Magistrate would take immediate action for seeing that powers under Section 451 Cr.P.C. Are properly and promptly exercised and articles are not kept for a long time at the police station, in any case, for not more than fifteen days to one month. This Object can also be achieved if there is proper supervision by the Registry of the concerned High Court in seeing that the rules framed by the High Court with regard to such articles are implemented properly."

Crl.RC(MD).No.1434 of 2025

8. It may also be relevant to note that mere pendency of confiscation proceedings before the Collector is no bar to release the vehicle.<sup>1</sup> The same view was taken by the Allahabad High Court that pendency of confiscation proceedings shall not operate as bar against the release of vehicle seized under Section 60 of Excise Act<sup>2</sup>.

9. Keeping in view the law laid down by the Supreme Court and the documents/facts which would prima facie show that Revision Petitioner is the owner of seized vehicle, this Court takes judicial notice that if vehicle in the present case is allowed to be kept in custody and in open yard, it will be exposed to vagaries of weather, resulting in diminishing its value and may in course of time be reduced to scrap.

10. In view thereof, impugned order dated 13.10.2025 passed by Judicial Magistrate No.III, Tiruchirappalli, in Crl.M.P.No.23166 of 2025, is set aside and the seized vehicle viz., Bharath Benz Tipper Lorry, bearing Registration No.TN 48 AE 5837, is directed to be released to petitioner subject to the following conditions:
