The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that petitioner along with other accused were found in illegal possession of 25.115 kgs of ganja in two shoulder bags which is a commercial quantity. There are materials available as against the petitioner and the petitioner is having one previous case. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also the considering the fact that the prosecution seized contraband of 12.520kgs from each of the accused in two separate bags and clubbed together and the same has been termed as commercial quantity, if the contraband seized from each of the accused separately with separate seizure it cannot be clubbed together and thereby the contraband recovered from this petitioner is not a commercial quantity and though the petitioner has previous cases for similar kind of offence that case already ended in acquittal and as on date no previous case is pending against the petitioner and also taking into consideration the period of incarceration suffered by the
