2. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and perused the materials available on record.

3. The petitioner presented the above Execution Application, which was returned by the Court below on 25.11.2024 raising certain queries. Thereafter, the petitioner re-presented the papers after compliance. However, by endorsement dated 24.04.2025, the papers were once again returned, reiterating the objection regarding maintainability. Aggrieved by the repeated returns without numbering the application, the present Civil Revision Petition has been filed.

5. Considering the nature of the objections raised, this Court is of the view that the question of maintainability is a matter to be decided judicially after affording an opportunity of hearing to the petitioner and not by way of repeated returns at the stage of scrutiny.

6. Accordingly, the Court below is directed to take the
