2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner raised the grounds that the detainee was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 03.07.2025, but the detention order was passed only on 12.07.2025. There was a delay of 9 days between the arrest of the detainee and passing of the detention order. Further, there was no close proximity reason to detain the detainee under Act 14.

4. On perusal of the records and submissions made on either side, it was revealed that the detainee committed a serious and heinous offence as against the minor girl. Therefore, the Sponsoring Authority registered an FIR in Crime No.24 of 2025 for the offences under Sections 5(m), 5(n), 5(j)(ii) r/w 6(i) of POCSO Act and 351(3) of BNS. The petitioner is being an offender of sexual offence, the Investigating Officer ought to have recorded the statement from the victim and the medical evidence. That apart, within 9 days from the date of arrest, the detention order was passed. Therefore, there is absolutely no delay in passing the detention order.

5. In view of the above, this Court finds no infirmity or illegality in the detention order and hence, this Habeas Corpus Petition is dismissed.
