It is evident from the records that the marriage between the parties was solemnized on 25.11.2018 as per Hindu rites and customs and due to their wed-lock they were blessed with a female child namely Leeyasri Karthik, aged about six years and that subsequently, there arose some misunderstanding between them and they are living separately.

3. It is not in dispute that the respondent has filed a petition in H.M.O.P.No.105 of 2025, seeking divorce and the same is pending on the file of the Subordinate Court, Mudhukulathur, Ramanathapuram District.

5. The learned counsel appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner has made frivolous allegations against the petitioner and in the other proceedings, the petitioner has stated that she was willing to join with the respondent. He would further submit that the petitioner has not assigned any valid reason or ground to transfer the case and hence, they are objecting for transfer.

6. In the case of N.C.V.Aishwarya Vs. A.S.Saravana Karthik Sha reported in 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has reiterated the position with generally, it is the wife's convenience, which must be looked at while considering the transfer petition under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure and the relevant passage is extracted hereunder :

“The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.”, the bench observed.”
