2.Perusal of records would reveal that the petitioner/wife has filed the above I.D.O.P against the respondent/husband seeking divorce on the ground of cruelty. However, the trial Court has returned the application on the ground of jurisdiction.

3.It is to be noted that when an application filed by a person has been returned on the ground of jurisdiction, it is for him/her to assail reasons as to how such an application is maintainable within the jurisdiction of the concerned Court and to re-present the same or to present the same before the concerned jurisdictional Court.

4.Therefore, considering the facts and circumstances of the case and after perusal of the averments made in the said IDOP., without going into the merits of the case, this Court directs the petitioner to re-present the I.D.O.P.Diary No.1769 of 2025 (FN.OP/1878/2025, CNR.TNMD010082122025) before the Principal District Court, Madurai, explaining the reasons as to how such petition is maintainable within the jurisdiction of the said Court, within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and on such re-presentation within the time stipulated by this Court, the learned Principal District Judge, Madurai, is directed to consider the same and pass appropriate orders with regard to numbering of such petition, after hearing the petitioner, in accordance with law, within a period of one month therefrom.

5.The Civil Revision Petition stands disposed of, with the aforesaid directions. No costs.
