3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that an application has been made for the demarcation of the boundaries of the property in question.

4. The learned Government Advocate appearing for the first and second respondents would submit that on receipt of the petitioner's application, the first respondent has already initiated the proceedings and has requested police protection from the third respondent and that after consideration of the claims of the parties, appropriate steps would be taken to demarcate the land in accordance with Sections 9 and 10 of the Tamil Nadu Land Survey and Boundaries Act, 1923.

5. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the third respondent would submit that once the petitioner pays the requisite fee for police protection, appropriate protection would be provided for the survey and demarcation of the property, as per the communication of the third respondent dated 28.10.2025.

6. Recording the aforesaid submissions, this Court directs the first respondent to dispose of the petitioner's application, demarcate the
