COMMON ORDER

These writ petitions have been filed challenging the impugned assessment orders dated 26.06.2024 & 29.08.2024.

2. When these matters were taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is willing to file an appeal against the said impugned assessment orders. Therefore, though he had sought for larger relief in these petitions, he had restricted his relief to the extent to request this Court to grant liberty to the petitioner to file an appeal. Hence, he requests this Court to pass appropriate orders.

3. In reply, the learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondent requests this Court to pass any appropriate orders with regard to the filing of appeal.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Government Pleader for the respondent and also perused the materials available on record.

6. In the cases on hand, it was submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that now the petitioner is willing to file the appeals against the impugned assessment orders dated 26.06.2024 & 29.08.2024 passed by the respondent and he has restricted his relief and requested this Court to grant liberty to the petitioner to file the appeals against the impugned assessment orders since it will be sufficient to meet out the case of the petitioner.

7. Therefore, though this petition has been filed challenging the impugned orders dated 26.06.2024 & 29.08.2024, considering the submissions made by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to dismiss the present petitions by granting liberty to the petitioner to file appeals against the impugned assessment orders.

W.P.(MD)Nos.419 & 420 of 2026

8. Accordingly, these writ petitions are dismissed. No costs.

Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are also closed.

9. While dismissing these petitions, this Court grants liberty to the petitioner to file appeals before the concerned Appellate Authority, within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of copy of this order. In such case, the Appellate Authority shall consider the said appeals filed by the petitioner, if it is otherwise in order, on its own merits and in accordance with law, by providing sufficient opportunity to the petitioner, without pressing for limitation.
