The petitioner/Accused, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1), 351(2) of BNS, in Crime No. 408 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that while one Charles was walking away from the market, the accused, while driving a two-wheeler, hit Charles on his left leg and abused him in filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that there is a civil dispute between

It was also submitted that the injured was treated as an out-patient and that no previous case is pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the fact that the injured was treated as an out-patient and also considering the fact that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, this Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Alangulam, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-(Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned
