The petitioner/Accused, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 318(4), 61(2)(a), 316 and 3(5) of BNS in Crime No.71 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during 2023 June, on seeing the advertisement made by the Conti Trainers Private Limited and Conti Capital Associates the defacto complainant invested the money in the associates and the same was swindled by the accused persons . Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against him. The petitioner has nothing to do with the alleged crime. He would further submit that the petitioner is the father of A1 and mother of A1 has been granted bail and no previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the intervenor vehemently objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner by stating that huge amount involved in this case is very huge.

5. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the accused persons had cheated the victims to the tune of Rs.8,09,00,000/- The amount involved in this case is very huge and the offence committed by the accused is grave in nature. He would further submit that investigation is pending. Hence, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the considering the fact that the petitioner is not a named accused in the First Information Report and he is the father of A1 and already mother has been granted bail and also the properties of petitioner have been seized and no previous case is pending against the petitioner this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on

anticipatory bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Madurai and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police, daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offences of similar nature.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].
