The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 326(f) and 61(ii) of BNS Act (Corresponding Sections 435 and 120(B) of IPC), in Crime No.730 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons had poured the flammable liquid and set fire to the office of the defacto complainant along with medical equipment. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner's name is not found in the FIR and based on the confession of co-accused, the petitioner was falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there are 13 previous cases pending against the petitioner and the same was ended in acquitted. He further submitted that the petitioner is a history sheeter. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned counsel for the Intervenor/defacto complainant submitted that the petitioner along with other accused persons had set fire to the office of the defacto complainant and he is a history sheeter. Hence, he strongly opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact no one was sustained injuries, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which, the order copy was made ready, before the
