	imprisonment for a period of 15 days. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that though there is no evidence on record, the trial court erroneously convicted the petitioner. It is further submitted that there are good grounds to succeed in the appeal and the final hearing of the appeal may be taken considerable time. Therefore, he prayed the Court to allow this petition. On the other hand, learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the bail petition contending that there is no illegality in the judgment of the trial court and that the trial court has rightly passed the impugned order and prayed this Court to dismiss the petition. Perused the contents of the affidavit filed in support of the petition. Having regard to the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, it is considered fit to suspend the sentence of imprisonment alone imposed against the petitioner till the disposal of the appeal. Accordingly, the sentence of imprisonment alone is suspended till the disposal of the appeal and the petitioner is directed to be released on bail on the same terms and conditions as imposed by the trial court, pending disposal of the criminal appeal. During the period of bail, the petitioner shall not
