The offence alleged against the petitioner is punishable under Section 8 (C) read with 20(b)(ii)(B) of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 07.01.2026 on reliable information about illegal transportation of ganja at the outskirts of Indravelly Village, the Sub-Inspector of Police with his staff rushed to the scene of offence where he found the petitioner along with other accused. As per confession-cum-seizure panchanama 1 kg ganja was found in possession of the petitioner. Immediately, he reported the same to the police and basing on the same, they registered a case against the petitioner along with others for the aforesaid offence.

3. Heard Sri Kondadi Ajay Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner/accused No.1 and Sri M.Ramachandra Reddy, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent-State.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner/accused No.1 submits that the petitioner is innocent of the offence alleged against him and he has been falsely implicated in the present case; that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since 07.01.2026; that the contraband seized from the possession of petitioner is 1 kg., which is intermediate quantity and hence, he requested the Court to grant regular bail to the petitioner.

5. On the other hand, learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the same and would submit that the offence alleged against the petitioner is under NDPS Act, which is a grievous offence, therefore, the petitioner is not entitled for grant of bail. He also submits that though 1 kg., ganja was seized from the possession of the petitioner, earlier the police seized 5 kgs., of ganja from the possession of the petitioner and hence, the petitioner is not entitled for grant of bail and therefore, he prays this Court to dismiss the criminal petition.

6. Considering the submissions made by learned counsel on either side and material available on record, the petitioner is arrayed as accused No.1 in this case and he is in judicial custody since 07.01.2026. The seized contraband is only an intermediate quantity and the investigation is in progress. Except the present case, no other cases are pending against the petitioner. Considering above, this Court is inclined to grant regular bail to the petitioner/accused No.1, subject to following conditions:

- (i) The petitioner-accused No.1 shall execute a personal bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum each to the satisfaction of the learned I Additional Sessions Judge, Adilabad.
