ORDER: (per Hon'ble Sri Justice P.Sam Koshy)

Heard Mr. P.Sudheer Rao, learned counsel representing Ms. K.Udaya Sri, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr. Santhapur Satyanarayana, learned Government Pleader for Services-I for the respondents. Perused the record.

2. Aggrieved of non-compliance of the order dated 16.02.2023 passed in W.P.No.14865 of 2017 and also non-compliance of the order dated 20.07.2016 passed in O.A.No.1329 of 2013, the present contempt case has been filed.

3. It appears that the solitary relief which was granted by the Division Bench of this Court while dismissing the writ petition of the State was directing the respondents to release the pension and pensionary benefits to the employee concerned.

4. Today, when the matter is taken up for hearing, it has been informed that the employee because of age related issues has since passed away, though the pension and pensionary benefits were not released to the employee. It has also been informed that the employee was also not released the gratuity amount and other retirement amounts.

5. As regards the pension and pensionary benefits, since the employee is no more alive and it is informed that the spouse of the employee is also pre-deceased and only the two sons of the employee survive and as regards any monetary benefit that fell due and which can be passed on to the children like gratuity and other unpaid retiral benefits, we leave it open for the children to agitate the same independently before the respondent authorities and upon such claim being made, it is expected that the respondents shall properly scrutinize the same and take an appropriate decision forthwith.

6. So far as the present contempt case is concerned, in the light of the death of the deceased employee, we close the contempt case at this juncture with the aforesaid liberty to the legal heirs of the deceased employee and discharge the respondents from the contempt case. There shall be no order as to costs.

Consequently, miscellaneous petitions pending, if any, shall stand closed.
