The brief facts of the case are that basing on a complaint lodged by the de facto complainant stating that she has two daughters namely B.Vasudha and B.Krishnaveni and on their names, the petitioner/accused No.1 submitted fabricated documents saying that their marriage was performed on 12.03.2023 and 04.12.2022 respectively, and claimed benefits under Kalyana Laxmi Scheme and dishonestly obtained Government Funds in collusion with some agents and other beneficiaries.
