The case of the prosecution is that the father of the deceased came to the police station and lodged a compliant on 31.01.2026, wherein it is stated that his daughter died due to accident and immediately he rushed to the hospital, where the police informed him that his daughter had met with an accident. It is further stated that the accused alleged to have had an argument with the deceased with regard to money and with an intention to kill her, the accused allegedly ran over a Bolero vehicle bearing No.TS-36-TA-348 on her, as such he requested the police to take necessary action against the petitioner. completed and charge sheet is filed and hence he requested the Court to grant regular bail to the petitioner.
