2. The case of the prosecution is that, on 27.04.2026, the de-facto complainant lodged a report before the police stating that the petitioner herein has been continuously harassing, threatening, sexually exploiting and physically assaulting her for the last four years and they are working in the same commercial complex in Hyderabad in different software companies and they stopped speaking normally because of the petitioner's possessive behavior, aggression and repeated harassment and on 26.04.2026, when she was present at a church, the accused came there and he threatened her, compelled her through fear and intimidation and forcibly took her from that place and he physically assaulted her multiple times and he had committed rape upon her repeatedly. Hence, the complainant requested to take necessary action. Basing on the said complaint, the police registered a case for the above said offences.

3. Heard Smt. K. Saipriya, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner as well as Sri D. Arun Kumar, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent of the said allegations and he is falsely implicated in the present case due to the previous grudge and he is in jail since 29.04.2026 and the entire investigation was already completed. He further submitted that the statement of the victim under Section 183 of the BNS is already recorded and the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for further investigation. Therefore, he prayed the Court to grant bail to him by allowing this criminal petition.
