3. Heard Sri R.Prasanth, learned counsel for the petitioners/Accused Nos.1 to 3 and Sri D.Arun Kumar, learned Additional Public Prosecutor, appearing for the respondent-State.

4. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioners is that the petitioners are innocent of the offences alleged against them; that though the offences alleged against the petitioners are bailable, the learned trial Court without considering the same remanded them to judicial custody, which is not in accordance with law, as such requested the Court to grant regular bail to the petitioners.

5. On the other hand, learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the same and submits that there are three cases registered against the petitioners and they violated the injunction orders issued by the learned trial Court; that when the authorities concerned went to the place of offence, the petitioners obstructed the authorities in doing their legitimate work, as such the learned trial Court rightly remanded the petitioners to judicial custody and hence, he prays to dismiss the petition.
