Versus

THE PRESIDING OFFICER AND OTHERS

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JAGMOHAN BANSAL

Present:- Mr. Hasrat Brar, Advocate for petitioner

JAGMOHAN BANSAL, J. (ORAL)

1. The petitioner through instant petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India is seeking modification of award dated 09.12.2023 (Annexure P-3) whereby she has been directed to pay 40 installments of Rs.22,000/- per month in discharge of his loan liability of Rs.8,80,000/-. She prays that amount of installment may be substituted for Rs.11,000/- per month.

2. The petitioner is not disputing the fact that she borrowed a sum of Rs.8,80,000/- from respondent No.2 who filed civil suit against her. During the pendency of suit for recovery, the parties entered into a compromise. As per compromise, the petitioner agreed to pay a sum of Rs.22,000/- per month. The amount has to be deducted from her salary. There was further understating that there would be 40 installments and in case of premature retirement or any other reason if amount remains unpaid, it would be deducted from her pensionary benefits. She is now claiming that due to her family circumstances, she is unable to pay Rs.22,000/- per month and may be permitted to pay Rs.11,000/- per month.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that prayer of the petitioner is entirely based on humanitarian ground. It is very difficult for the petitioner to survive after deduction of Rs.22,000/- per month from her salary.

4. The impugned award was passed on 09.12.2023 and it was a consent order. The petitioner at her will agreed to pay sum of Rs.22,000/- per month. The petitioner can request to respondent for payment of lower amount, however, this Court in view of her consent and the fact that impugned award was passed on 09.12.2023 cannot modify impugned award.

5. Dismissed.

6. Pending Misc. application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
