(270) IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-5019-2026

Date of Decision: 08.04.2026

GURMEET SINGH... Petitioner*Versus*STATE OF PUNJAB*...Respondent*CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASJIT SINGH BEDI

Present: Mr. Harshdeep Singh, Advocate with Mr. Varun Singla, Advocate for
Mr. Lupil Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Attar Ahmed, AAG, Punjab.

JASJIT SINGH BEDI, J.

The prayer in this 2nd petition under Section 483 BNSS, 2023 is for the grant of regular bail in case bearing FIR No.130 dated 10.08.2021 registered under Sections 21/23/29/61/85 of NDPS Act and Sections 419/420/467/468/471/120-B of IPC at Police Station STF, SAS Nagar Mohali.

2. The brief facts of the case are that secret information was received by the investigating agency that Gurmeet Singh son of Jasbir Singh, resident of Village Narli, District Tarn Taran was indulging in the smuggling of heroin for a long time and had close contacts with Pakistan based smugglers. He had got heroin from Pakistan in huge quantity and supplied the same in various parts of Punjab. He was in touch with Pakistani smugglers and was likely to finalize a deal with them soon. As per the deal, the Pakistani dealers would send a huge consignment of heroin to Gurmeet Singh on the intervening night of 09/10.08.2021 via BOP Muhawa over the border fencing. If checking was done at BOP, Muhawa, then the Pakistani heroin smugglers could be apprehended alongwith Gurmeet Singh with a huge consignment of heroin.

Based on the secret information, An FIR No.130 dated 10.08.2021 under Sections 21,23 and 29 of the NDPS Act Police Station Special Task Force, SAS Nagar, came to be registered. Pursuant thereto, a raid was conducted on the intervening night of 09/10.08.2021 on the basis of the secret information but no recovery could be effected and the petitioner was not found at the spot. A similar raid was conducted on 18/19.08.2021, which was unsuccessful. Subsequently, on 25.05.2022, secret information was received once again by the investigating agency that the petitioner was smuggling a huge quantity of heroin in the area of BOP Bharowal. Thereafter, one SI Vinod Sharma alongwith other police officials reached at BOP Bharowal and informed the officials of BSF 144 Battalion. At about 11.00 p.m., a drone was found coming from the Pakistan side which was fired at. It dropped two packets of heroin and went back to the Pakistan side. The packets contained 1.120 grams of heroin each. Thereby 02 Kilos 240 grams of heroin was recovered.

3. The petitioner sought the concession of anticipatory bail, which was dismissed. Later, he was arrested and the recovery of 690 grams of heroin came to be effected from him.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. The mandatory provisions of Sections 42 and 50 of the NDPS Act have not been complied with in their proper perspective. No independent witness was joined at the time of search and seizure. As the petitioner is a first-time offender, is in custody since 28.03.2024 but only 02 of the 24 prosecution witnesses have been examined so far, the trial of the present case is not likely to be concluded anytime soon and therefore, he is entitled to the concession of bail in view of the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Nitish Adhikary @ Bapan Versus The State of West Bengal, SLP (Crl.) Nos.5769/2022 arising out of judgment and order dated 04.05.2022 in CRM(NDPS) No.442/2022, decided on 01.08.2022 and Hasanujjaman & others Versus The State of West Bengal, SLP (Crl.) No.(s).3221/2023 arising out of impugned final judgment and order dated 29.11.2022 in CRM(NDPS) No.1323/2022, decided on 04.05.2023.

5. A reply dated 09.03.2026 by way of an affidavit of Raj Kumar, PPS, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Anti Narcotics Task Force, Border Range, District Amritsar has been filed on behalf of the State by the learned counsel for the State. The same is taken on record. He contends that commercial quantity of contraband has been recovered from the petitioner. Therefore, in view of the bar contained under Section 37 of the NDPS Act, the petitioner is not entitled to the grant of bail. He, however, concedes that the petitioner is a first-time offender, is in custody since 28.03.2024 but only 02 of the 24 prosecution witnesses have been examined so far.

6. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties.

7. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Nitish Adhikary @ Bapan Vs. The State of West Bengal SLP (Crl.) Nos.5769/2022 Decided on 01.08.2022 held as under:-

“As per the office report dated 29.07.2022, copy of the show cause notice along with Special Leave Petition was supplied to the Standing Counsel for the State of West Bengal and separate notice has been served on the State also. However, no one has entered appearance on their behalf.

The petitioner seeks enlargement on bail in F.I.R. No. 612 of 2020 dated 17.10.2020 filed under Section 21(c) and 37 of the NDPS 2 Act, registered at Police Station Bongaon, West Bengal.

During the course of the hearing, we are informed that the petitioner has undergone custody for a period of 01 year and 07 months as on 09.06.2022. The trial is at a preliminary stage, as only one witness has been examined. The petitioner does not have any criminal antecedents.

Taking into consideration the period of sentence undergone by the petitioner and all the attending circumstances but without expressing any views in the merits of the case, we are inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

The petitioner is accordingly, directed to be released on bail subject to him furnishing bail bonds to the satisfaction of the Trial Court.

The Special Leave Petition is disposed of on the aforestated terms.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.”

8. In Hasanujjaman & others Versus The State of West Bengal, SLP (Crl.) No.(s).3221/2023, decided on 04.05.2023, held as under:-

“1. There are three petitioners in this Special Leave Petition, who were accused of committing an offence under Sections 21(c)/29 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 (for short, ‘NDPS Act’) in FIR No.18/2022, dated 09.01.2022, registered at Police Station Islampur, District Murshidabad, West Bengal.

*2. The allegations are that when the police party intercepted the petitioners along with another person riding on two motorcycles, they were found in possession of codeine phosphate in a consignment of phensedyl bottles loaded in two nylon bags. During the search, 115 bottles (100 ml. each) of phensedyl were recovered from the joint possession of the petitioners. They were arrested on the spot and have been in custody for more than one year and four months.

3. We have heard learned counsel for the parties and carefully perused the record.

*4. The investigation is complete; chargesheet has been filed, though the charges are yet to be framed. The conclusion of trial will, thus, take some reasonable time, regardless of the direction issued by the High Court to conclude the same within one year from the date of framing of charges. The petitioners do not have any criminal antecedents. There is, thus, substantial compliance of Section 37 of the NDPS Act.

5. In such circumstances, but without expressing any views on the merits of the case, we deem it appropriate to release the petitioners on bail subject to the terms and conditions as may be imposed by the Trial Court.

6. Additionally, it is clarified that in case the petitioners are found involved in any other case under the NDPS Act or other penal law, it shall amount to misuse of the concession of bail granted to them today, and in such a case, necessary consequences shall follow.

7. The petitioners are further directed to appear before the Trial Court regularly. In the event of they being absent, it shall again be taken as a misuse of concession of bail.

8. The Special Leave Petition stands disposed of in the above terms.

9. As a result, pending interlocutory application also stands disposed of.

(emphasis supplied)

9. Admittedly, in ‘Nitish Adhikary @ Bapan’ (supra) and ‘Hasanujjaman & others’ (supra), the accused therein had been granted the concession of bail by the Hon’ble Supreme Court after they had undergone approximately one and a half years of custody. They were also first-time offenders as is borne out from the orders.

10. In the instant case, the petitioner is stated to be in custody since 28.03.2024 but only 02 of the 24 prosecution witnesses have been examined so far. He is also first-time offender with no other case registered against him. In this situation, the rigors of Section 37 of the NDPS Act can be diluted to an extent in view of the salutary provisions of Article 21 of the Constitution of India which provides for the right to a speedy trial and the case of the petitioners can be considered for the grant of bail.

CRM-M-5019-2026*-7-

11. Thus without commenting on the merits of the case, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner-Manjoor Khan S/o Akbar Khan is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds to the satisfaction of learned CJM/Duty Magistrate, concerned.

12. The petitioner shall appear before the police station concerned on the first Monday of every month till the conclusion of the trial and inform in writing each time that he is not involved in any other crime other than the present case.

13. In addition, the petitioner (or anyone on his behalf) shall prepare an FDR in the sum of Rs.2,00,000/- and deposit the same with the Trial Court. The same would be liable to be forfeited as per law in case of the absence of the petitioner from trial without sufficient cause.

14. The petition stands disposed of.
