She preferred representation dated 25.07.2025 to the respondent but to no avail. As per DDUAPSY, family members are entitled to financial assistance in case of death

3. On 02.02.2026, the following order was passed:-

*“Counsel for the petitioner states that petitioner’s husband died due to cancer on 25.04.2025. Advance copy of the petition has been served upon the official respondents.

Mr. Armaan Dahiya, AAG, Haryana, put in appearance on their behalf and requests for short accommodation to get instructions and to apprise the Court as to whether petitioner’s application can be accepted for grant of financial assistance.

4. Learned State counsel on instructions from Mr. Kulwant Khullar, Manager submits that claimed amount was disbursed to deceased’s father because as per his Parivar Pehchan Patra (PPP), deceased was part of his family. The amount could not be finally released because deceased’s father was not having a savings account. The compensation has come back to the authorities. The petitioner’s claim in the light of Parivar Pehchan Patra (PPP) prepared during the lifetime of deceased would be considered and an appropriate order would be passed within four weeks from today.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner agrees to the aforesaid arrangement.
