CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARKESH MANUJA

Present: Mr. Jaswider Rao, Advocate for the appellant.

Mr.Vishal Jassal, Advocate for respondent Nos.1 and 2.

Mr. Abhinav Singla, Advocate for respondent No.3/Insurance Company.

HARKESH MANUJA, J.

[1]. By way of present appeal, challenge has been laid to an award dated 15.11.2023, passed by the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Rewari (for brevity, “the Tribunal”), whereby an amount of Rs.1,66,092/- was awarded as compensation to the appellant/claimant along with interest @ 6% per annum from the date of institution of claim petition till its actual realization, on account of injuries suffered by him in a vehicular accident, which occurred on 01.05.2020.

FACTS

[2]. The appellant, being injured filed a claim petition before the learned Tribunal praying for grant of compensation on account of injuries suffered by him in a motor vehicular accident which took place on 01.05.2020 while alleging rash and negligent driving of vehicle bearing registration No.HR-45-B-3790 being driven by respondent No. 1/driver.

FAO NO.967 OF 2024 (O&M)

[3]. After going through the claim petition and evaluating the evidence led by both the parties, learned Tribunal vide award dated 15.11.2023, arrived at a conclusion that the accident occurred on account of rash and negligent driving of respondent No. 1 and awarded Rs.1,66,092/- as compensation.

[4]. Being aggrieved against the aforesaid award dated 15.11.2023; the present appeal has been preferred by the appellant/claimant for enhancement of compensation. Facts as specified in the claim petition and the issue regarding negligence of the driver been recorded in favour of the appellant/claimant by the learned Tribunal being not in dispute, therefore, for the sake of brevity, those are not being repeated here.

ARGUMENTS ON BEHALF OF LEARNED COUNSEL FOR THE APPELLANT/CLAIMANT.

[5]. Learned counsel for the appellant/claimant assailed the aforementioned award while submitting that the amount awarded by the learned Tribunal was grossly meager and disproportionate to the nature and extent of injuries sustained by the appellant/claimant. It was submitted that the Tribunal failed to appreciate the settled principles laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court governing the assessment of just and fair compensation in injury cases. He further argued that the appellant/claimant suffered permanent disability to the extent of 17%, thereby rendering him incapable of performing his daily activities; therefore, the Tribunal ought to have granted adequate compensation towards loss of income by applying appropriate multiplier and taking into consideration the permanent and incapacitating nature of the disability. Accordingly, he prayed that the compensation awarded be suitably enhanced in accordance with the settled law so as to meet the ends of justice.

ARGUMENTS ON BEHALF OF LEARNED COUNSEL FOR RESPONDENT No.3/INSURANCE COMPANY

[6]. Per contra, learned counsel for respondent No.3/Insurance Company vehemently contended that in the facts and circumstances of the case, the appellant was adequately compensated, thus, the present appeal was liable to be dismissed.

DISCUSSION

[7]. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the paper-book of the case. I find force in the arguments advanced by learned Counsel for the appellant.

[8]. Before determining the quantum of compensation, it is essential to draw guidance from the principles laid down in similar cases by the Hon'ble Apex Court. In "Raj Kumar vs. Ajay Kumar and Ors." reported as (2011) 1 SCC 343 the Court laid down the heads under which compensation is to be awarded for personal injuries.

"6. The heads under which compensation is awarded in personal injury cases are the following:

Pecuniary damages (Special damages)

- (i) Expenses relating to treatment, hospitalization, medicines, transportation, nourishing food, and miscellaneous expenditure.*
- (ii) Loss of earnings (and other gains) which the injured would have made had he not been injured, comprising:*
 - (a) Loss of earning during the period of treatment;*
 - (b) Loss of future earnings on account of permanent disability.*

(iii) Future medical expenses.

Non-pecuniary damages (General Damages)

(iv) Damages for pain, suffering and trauma as a consequence of the injuries.

(v) Loss of amenities (and/or loss of prospects of marriage).

(vi) Loss of expectation of life (shortening of normal longevity).

In routine personal injury cases, compensation will be awarded only under heads (i), (ii) (a) and (iv). It is only in serious cases of injury, where there is specific medical evidence corroborating the evidence of the claimant, the compensation will be granted under any of the heads (ii) (b), (iii), (v) and (vi) relating to loss of future earnings on account of permanent disability, future medical expenses, loss of amenities (and/or loss of prospects of marriage) and loss of expectation of life”.

ON THE ASPECT OF ENHANCEMENT OF COMPENSATION ASSESSMENT UNDER “LOSS OF INCOME”

[9]. A perusal of the record reveals that the appellant/claimant was 58 years old at the time of the accident and earning Rs. 22,000/- per month by working as Manager @ Innovation Triggers Management Private Limited Company, Gurugram. The learned Tribunal rightly assessed the monthly income of the appellant/claimant @ Rs.22,000/- per month, in consonance with the statement of Shiv Kumar Manager as PW-5. The said assessment is based on cogent and reliable evidence and does not suffer from any infirmity or perversity. Therefore, this Court finds no ground to interfere with the determination of the monthly income as recorded by the learned Tribunal.

[9.1]. Now, as per the statement of appellant/claimant who appeared as PW-1, he remained in hospital for 2 days and as such loss of income suffered by him during the said period is assessed as Rs.1,466.66 (733.33 x 2) rounded off to

Rs.1,470/-. Further, evidently the motor vehicular accident in the present case took place on 01.05.2020 and the appellant/claimant must have been bed-ridden for 3 months due to Ac joint subluxation and old scapula fracture and mild stiffness of right elbow with scar mark on right hand index finger, after the accident. Thus, it would be safe to assume that the appellant would have suffered loss of income for 3 months due to reduced working capacity. Therefore, after considering facts and circumstances of the present case, loss of income for the said period is conservatively assessed @ Rs.65,999.7/- (733.33 x 90) rounded off to Rs. 66,000/-. Furthermore, though, the appellant/claimant has suffered 17% disability, yet it being a case of “Ac joint subluxation and old scapula fracture and mild stiffness of right elbow with scar mark over right hand index finger” it would be just and fair if the future loss of income/functional disability is assessed @ 15%, keeping in view the nature of work being performed by the appellant; the resultant severe restriction on his mobility and earning capacity, and the settled principle that functional disability may differ from the medical disability depending upon the avocation of the injured. Additionally, the Hon’ble Supreme Court, in the case of “Pappu Deo Yadav v. Naresh Kumar” reported as 2020 INSC 553 held that in cases where a claimant suffers disability due to a motor vehicle accident, compensation may be awarded not only for the future loss of income but also towards future prospects.

[9.2]. A perusal of record shows that the age of appellant/claimant at the time of accident was 58 years. The computation of future prospects is to be done as per the law laid down by a Constitution Bench of the Hon’ble Supreme Court in “National Insurance Co. Ltd. v. Pranay Sethi” reported as (2017) 16 SCC 680 para 59.3, which records the conclusion in this regard, reads as under:-

FAO NO.967 OF 2024 (O&M)

“59.3 While determining income, an addition of 50% of actual salary to the income of the deceased towards future prospects, where the deceased had a permanent job and was below the age of 40 years should be made. The addition should be 30%, if the age of the deceased was between 40 to 50 years. In case the deceased was between the age of 50 to 60 years, the addition should be 15%. Actual salary should read as actual salary less tax.”

[9.3]. In view of the above discussion, the appellant/claimant in addition to the loss of future earnings, shall also be entitled to compensation for loss of future prospects @ 10%. Therefore, the income of the appellant/claimant after adding future prospects be taken as Rs.24,200/- (22,000 + 2,200) per month for the purpose of calculation of compensation. Accordingly, this Court finds that the compensation payable for the functional disability to the extent of 15% is assessed @ Rs.3,92,040/- (24,200 x 12 x 9 x 15/100).

ASSESSMENT UNDER “MEDICAL EXPENSES/HOSPITALIZATION

[10]. In the present case, the appellant/claimant suffered disability to the extent of 17%, which has been established from the disability certificate proved on record as Ex.P16 by Dr. Ajay Singh, MO, GH, Rewari who appeared as PW-3. The appellant/claimant has also stated that he had spent a sum of Rs.5 lakhs approximately on his treatment. Therefore, keeping in mind the cost factor prevalent at the time of motor vehicular accident and the treatment besides need of medicines during rehabilitation period, the compensation under this head needs to be reassessed. The aforesaid view finds force from the fact that due to shock and mental agony on account of accident, a person cannot be presumed to be vigilant enough to collect all the bills for claim/reimbursement purposes, though, total bills proved are for Rs.85,692/- yet in the humble opinion of this Court, compensation under this head is assessed as Rs.1,50,000/-.

ON THE ASPECT OF PAIN AND SUFFERINGS

[11] For assessing just compensation under the head of pain and sufferings, reference may be drawn to the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in K. Murlidhar vs. R. Subbulakshmi & Anr., 2024 INSC 886, wherein it was held that the award of compensation under non-pecuniary heads must be reasonable and commensurate with gravity of the injuries suffered; the extent of disability; the duration of hospitalization, and the mental and physical agony endured by the claimant. Relevant portion of the same is reproduced as under:-

“15. Keeping in view the above-referred judgments, the injuries suffered, the ‘pain and suffering’ caused, and the life-long nature of the disability afflicted upon the claimant-appellant, and the statement of the Doctor as reproduced above, we find the request of the claimant-appellant to be justified and as such, award Rs.15,00,000/- under the head ‘pain and suffering’, fully conscious of the fact that the prayer of the claimant-appellant for enhancement of compensation was by a sum of Rs. 10,00,000/-, we find the compensation to be just, fair and reasonable at the amount so awarded.”

[11.1]. In light of the settled legal position enunciated by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Muralidhar's case (supra), and having due regard to the peculiar facts and circumstances of the present case, it is evident from the documentary evidence duly proved on record that the appellant/claimant sustained grievous injuries, namely “Ac joint subluxation and old scapula fracture and mild stiffness of right elbow with scar mark over right hand index finger.” More than that, Dr. Ajay Singh, MO, GH, Rewari who appeared as PW-3 proved on record the disability certificate as Ex.P16, as per which, the appellant/claimant was found to be having 17% disability. Thus, this Court is of the opinion that an amount of Rs.2,00,000/- is awarded under the head of pain and sufferings.

ASSESSMENT UNDER OTHER ‘PECUNIARY HEADS’

[12]. Admittedly, the injured was bed ridden for 3 months as he was suffering from post traumatic mild to moderate stiffness of right shoulder and mild stiffness of right elbow with scar mark right hand index finger and would have definitely gone for his post-operative care. However, learned Tribunal failed to grant adequate compensation under the head of special diet, conveyance charges and attendant charges. Therefore, compensation granted under these heads is reassessed @ Rs.1,00,000/.

CONCLUSION

[13]. In view of what has been discussed hereinabove, the appellant/claimant shall be entitled for the grant of compensation in the following manner:-

S.No.	Nature	Amount (in Rs.)
1.	Loss of Income (Rs. 1,470+ Rs. 66,000 + Rs. 3,92,040)	Rs. 4,59,510/-
2.	Medical Expenses/Hospitalization	Rs.1,50,000/-
3.	Compensation under other pecuniary head	Rs. 1,00,000/-
4.	Compensation under pain and sufferings	Rs. 2,00,000/-
	Total Compensation	Rs. 9,09,510/-
	Amount Awarded by the Tribunal	Rs. 1,66,092/-
	Enhanced Amount	Rs. 7,43,418/-

[14]. The grant of interest @ 6% per annum is not equitable and just in view of the observations made by the Hon’ble Supreme Court in “Smt. Supe Dei and others vs. National Insurance Company Limited and other, reported as (2009) (4) SCC 513 approved in a subsequent judgment titled as “Puttamma and others vs. K.L. Narayana Reddy and another, 2014 (1) RCR (Civil) 443, thus, the interest is enhanced to 9% per annum on the amount of compensation awarded to the claimants from the date of institution of claim petition till its realization. In case the said amount is not paid within three months, the same shall be payable thereafter along with 12% interest from the expiry of period of three months from today. Needless to mention here that the amount of compensation already paid to the claimant shall be deducted from the enhanced compensation.

[15]. Accordingly, appeal filed at the instance of appellants/claimants is disposed of with the aforesaid modification of the award passed by the learned Tribunal. Pending miscellaneous applications(s) if any, shall also stand disposed of.
