for respondents no.4 and 5.

JASGURPREET SINGH PURI, J. (Oral)

1. The present petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India seeking quashing of Annexure P-1 to the extent of declining the commission to the petitioner-Society.

2. On the last date of hearing, notice was issued to the petitioner as the learned counsel who had filed the present petition had passed away.

3. As per the report of the Registry, notice issued to the petitioner has been received back unserved with the report that he had expired on

09.05.2025. However, the petitioner is a Cooperative Society, which as per report of the Registry, it appears that the person through whom the present petition had been filed has died.

3. The present petition is of the year 2001 and nobody has appeared on behalf of the petitioner today nor on the last two dates.

4. In view of the above, the present petition is dismissed for non-prosecution. Liberty is granted to the petitioner that in case any cause of action survives, then an appropriate application for restoration may be filed at any stage.
