Mr.Sunil Kumar Thapar, Addl.AG Punjab.

Counsel for the petitioner-convict Amrik Singh has stated that this case arising out of the conviction of the petitioner under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 on the complaint of respondent No.2-Jaswinder Singh has since been settled between the parties alongwith other connected cases. He has placed on record copy of written compromise dated 25.04.2023 Annexure A-I in support of the compromise.

Perusal of bail order dated 21.04.2023 of the petitioner in the present case also reveals that counsel for complainant-respondent No.2 admitted before the High Court that the dispute, which is subject matter of the revision petition, has been settled between the parties. Besides this, on the basis of same compromise, criminal appeal arising out of the FIR between the parties was also settled in National Lok Adalat at SBS Nagar vide order dated 13.12.2025, which has also been placed on record by counsel for the petitioner. In that order also, it has been recorded that Jaswinder Singh complainant of the present case stated that the matter had

From the aforesaid, it becomes evident that the parties have already settled this matter. Consequently, this revision petition is allowed and impugned judgments and orders of both the Courts below are set aside and the petitioner is acquitted.

Since none is present for respondent No.2-complainant today, liberty is given to him to get the case revived by moving appropriate application, if need be.

Copy of this order be supplied/sent to the counsel/parties and file be consigned to the record room.
