

(Criminal) 953 and prayed for grant of interim regular bail to the petitioner till receiving of FSL report.

3. Learned State counsel appeared on advance notice and opposed the prayer made by the petitioner by submitting that the petitioner is involved in commission of serious offence and huge quantity of intoxicant tablets and capsules were recovered from him. As such, learned State counsel prayed for dismissal of the present petition.

4. Heard.

5. Keeping in view the fact that the petitioner is in custody since 06.01.2024; FSL report has not been received till date and quantity of the contraband cannot be ascertained until the report from chemical examiner is received. The Division Bench of this Court in the case of Inderjeet Singh @ Ladi (supra) has held that accused can be granted interim bail till report of FSL is received. So, the petitioner is ordered to be released on interim regular bail on his furnishing requisite bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate/Chief Judicial Magistrate concerned. However, it is made clear that on receipt of FSL report, petitioner shall surrender himself before the trial Court and shall move an appropriate application for grant of regular bail and the trial Court shall decide the said application in accordance with law, after considering the FSL report.

6. Disposed of accordingly.
