District Jalandhar, on during the pendency of the trail (Annexure P-1) for two months on the medical ground of the petitioner's father (Suffering from acute bone problem of left foot and needs to operate soon).

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. He further submits that the father of the petitioner is suffering from an acute bone ailment and, due to diabetes, the pain in his foot is increasing day by day. He submits that the doctors have advised immediate surgery and that, in case of any delay, the petitioner's father may lose his leg. Therefore, he prays for grant of interim bail to the petitioner.

3. Learned State counsel has vehemently opposed the prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioner. He further submits that the ailment of the petitioner's father is neither life-threatening nor of such an urgent nature as to necessitate the release of the petitioner on interim bail. Moreover, other family members are available to take care of the patient and to make arrangements for his treatment.

4. I have heard the submissions made by ld. counsel for the parties and perused the record.

5. After perusing the material placed on record, this Court is not inclined to grant interim bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, the present petition is hereby dismissed.
