1. The petitioner has filed the instant petition under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 with a prayer to grant interim regular bail for a period of three months to him in case FIR No.06 dated 17.01.2026, under Sections 15-C and 29 of the NDPS Act, 1985 registered at Police Station Alewa, District Jind.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that during police custody, the petitioner had suffered fracture on his right hip joint and was admitted in PGIMS, Rohtak. He refers to the medical record (Annexure P-2) to contend that the condition of the petitioner was critical and he has already undergone surgery. However, he may be granted the concession of interim bail for post-operative care.

3. On the other hand, reply has been filed by the learned State counsel and he submits that the petitioner is hale and hearty and does not deserve the concession of bail. However, he submits that the medical Officer, District Jail Jind, has opined as under:-

“Patient Name: Satbir s/o Avtar Singh, 32 Yrs./M, resident of Churlkalan, district Sangrur, Pt. has undergone operative procedure due to fracture right acetabulum with posterior hip dislocation. On clinical evaluation, the patient is found to ambulatory with assistance of walking device. Although the patient is able to move, this mobility is limited and dependent on support of prolonged or unsupported ambulation is not advisable.

4. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record carefully.

5. From the medical record produced by learned State counsel of Haryana, it is apparent that the petitioner has already undergone operative procedure due to fracture of right hip dislocation and his mobility is limited.

6. Keeping in view the condition of the petitioner, he is ordered to be released on interim bail for a period of two weeks subject to his furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court/Duty Magistrate/CJM concerned. While granting the concession of interim bail to the petitioner, the Court may insist upon two heavy local sureties and may also impose any condition, as may be deemed appropriate. The petitioner is directed to surrender before the Jail Authorities on 02.06.2026 at 5:00 P.M.

7. Accordingly, the instant petition is allowed.
