CORAM:-HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE AMARJOT BHATTI

Present: None for the appellant(s).

Mr. Divij Datt, Advocate for the respondents.

AMARJOT BHATTI, J. (Oral)

This common order shall dispose of RSA No. 737 of 1991 and RSA No. 738 of 1991, as common questions of law and facts are involved in both these appeals.

On the previous date, Mr. Vineet, Advocate appearing on behalf of the appellants had pleaded no instructions and notice was ordered to be issued to the appellants in the ordinary process and by way of affixation.

Notice issued to appellants No. 1(i), 1(ii) and 1(x) received back duly served. Notice issued to appellant No. 1(iii) received back served through wife. Notice issued to appellants No. 1(iv), 1(vi), 1(viii) and 1(ix) received back served through mother. Notice issued to appellant No. 1(v) received back unserved, however, affixation was made.

Despite calling the case twice, nobody has appeared on behalf of the appellants to pursue the Regular Second Appeals. Neither any counsel is appearing on their behalf nor the appellants have put their appearance. It seems that the appellants do not want to pursue the present Regular Second Appeals. In view of these circumstances, both the Regular Second Appeals stand dismissed for want of prosecution.

Photocopy of this order be placed on the file of another connected case.
