

proceedings were concluded and amount of compensation due under the Act was paid. The writ petition came to be filed in the year 2026, relying upon a representation made in the year 2025, seeking benefit of a policy which provided for compassionate appointment to the land-losers. This policy has been framed sometime in the year 2007. The land has been acquired in the year 1996 and was put to use much earlier.

3. In such circumstances, similar issue has already been dismissed on 26.08.2025 by this Court in LPA-1474-2025, titled as 'Sanjeev Kumar vs. State of Haryana and others', against which the Special Leave Petition has also been dismissed.

4. In that view of the matter, we do not find any good ground to take a different view from what we have already taken in the aforesaid case.

5. The Letters Patent Appeals are accordingly dismissed.

6. Pending application(s), if any, stand(s) disposed of.
